~~You ain't tell him about the lawyer?~~

~~CICERO~~
~~We already blind-sided him with the Italians and to tell him the councilman wants more money. He was liable to blow a fucking gasket~~

~~POMPEY~~
~~Good call. Real good call. Now about that pastor anybody know who killed him?~~

~~CICERO~~
~~No not yet. But that's Earl's territory or Rome as he likes to call it. My focus is getting this deal done and well finally have the capital to be done with "The Romans" once and for all~~

INT. CHURCH - DAY

Detective McDonald is sitting in a dim lit church looking around. We see religious statues and stained glass.

McDonald rubs the wood of the church pew in front of him as if he remembers something.

Sister Rhonda, mid-forties with petite frame and black hair enters the church.

SISTER RHONDA
 Trying to remember your faith?

MCDONALD
 It's been awhile since I been in church. These pews, the smell all brings me back. My mom made us go every Sunday.

SISTER RHONDA
 God bless your mother.

McDonald laughs.

MCDONALD
 That's was in the morning the evenings were a little different.

SISTER RHONDA
 How can I help you sir.

MCDONALD
 My condolences for your pastor and I'm/we're doing everything we can to bring his murderer to justice. The only witness I have so far didn't really see much but heard some sort of fight between him and someone else. Did he have any issues with anyone you know of?

SISTER RHONDA
 Not that I can say. But with a man like him who goes beyond the church and into the streets to help people I'm sure that can invite the devil himself.

MCDONALD
 Into the streets?

SISTER RHONDA
 He started a outreach program that went out at night and helped addicts and he would come back with ALL sorts of stories

MCDONALD
 You have a list of the members or anybody who helped? Maybe names and numbers?

SISTER RHONDA
 Yes I can go to my office and print it out
